

License to Conduct the Facilitation Skills Practice Workshop

Background

Ingrid Bens, M.Ed. is a recognized expert on group facilitation and is the author of several books in the field. After teaching facilitation skills for over twenty years, Ingrid Bens has created the Facilitation Core Skills e-Learning Program. This license is for the right to conduct the Facilitation Skills Practice Workshop that has been designed for students who have completed this online course.

Package Contents:

This package includes everything the licensee will need to conduct a one-day workshop, including:

- A workshop flyer.
- Detailed trainer notes.
- PowerPoint slides.
- A participant workbook.
- A workbook cover.
- Classroom handouts.
- An evaluation form.
- A read me file.

License Parameters:

The holder of this license may conduct a one-day Facilitation Skills Practice Workshop for learners who have completed the Facilitation Core Skills e-Learning Program.

This license has no limits as to frequency, nor are there any time limits. The holder may run as many programs as needed, for as long as they are needed.

The licensee may not resell this program to any other individual or organization, nor provide it to another organization for free. The licensee is also prohibited from using this package as the basis for a commercial enterprise.

This license is granted for the sole purpose of complementing the online training program created by Facilitation Tutor LLC, and is reserved for clients who have purchased a set of seats for their group members.

Print this page and retain it in your files as written authorization to conduct this workshop.

Facilitation Tutor is located in Sarasota, Florida. In North America call 1-888-358-8848. From outside call 941-377-3920.